

Figure 1: Wright-Giemsa stained blood smear visualized in transmission (left), fluorescence-regular microscope (middle) and fluorescence-superresolution microscope (right).